PARISH EVENTS THIS WEEK

NEW SERVICE TIMES BEGIN AUGUST 4!

After a period of discernment and conversation with members of the parish, the Vestry has unanimously consented to officially launching the new service times beginning August 4. The new times will be 8 and 10:30 AM.

Christian Education will not begin until the Sunday after Labor Day, but when it does, it will take place in the time slot between the services from 9:30 to 10:15.

June's Loose Offering Recipient is: The Blossom Center

The Blossom Center is a nonprofit organization that provides working families childcare that is affordable, safe, and academically oriented. They are the only center whose hours are from 5 AM to 6 PM, enabling many low-income parents to work. They are located at the previous site of Royce Baptist Church on Robertsville Road across from Willowbrook School.

The Clearfork Camp Committee is busy preparing for the 2024 camp, July 8-12. Our theme this year is Stewardship. One of the days our focus is stewardship of the environment. We plan to do crafts with empty plastic water and soda bottles of all sizes and ask for your donations. Please leave the bottles in the Clearfork box on the floor of the Mailroom. As always, we need volunteers to help with activities and supervision. For more information, contact Cameron Ellis, 865-414-7542 or r.c.ellis@comcast.net
