CHRIST THE KING

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church

Oak Ridge, Tennessee

Welcome

Welcome to St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. We are delighted you chose to attend our service this morning.

Our clergy are Fr. Bailey Norman, Pastor Laura Henrik and Pastor Steve Damos.

Our service this morning is Holy Eucharist Rite II. It is found in your bulletin and in the Book of Common Prayer (red book). Hymns are found in the blue hymnal or Wonder, Love, and Praise (green book).

Hearing devices are available. Please see an usher for assistance.

Restrooms are located on both floors of the building. Directions are found on the orange pew card or please ask an usher for directions.

A nursery is available for children birth through 3-years of age. The children will be brought to their parents in time to receive communion and/or a blessing.

Children are very welcome in the service. They are invited to participate in Children's Chapel during the sermon. The focus will be on the Gospel for the day. The children will follow the cross during the sequence hymn and return for the Peace.

If you or your child needs a quiet place during the service, we invite you to use our Calm Room. The Calm Room is located on the hallway leading from the double doors at the front of the nave (church).

THE NICENE CREED

BCP 326

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. *Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING: EUCHARISTIC PRAYER B

BCP 367

The people remain standing. The presider then says

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Then facing the Holy Table, the Presider proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

A Proper Preface is said

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

S-129

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel, as they are able. Then the Presider continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Presider is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Presider and People

We remember his death, We proclaim his resurrection, We await his coming in glory;

The Presider continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Stephen, St. Alban, and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP 364

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Presider breaks the consecrated Bread, and maintains a moment of silence.

LOOSE PLATE OFFERING

TODAY

The loose plate offering for today will go toward Emergency Grocery Assistance. Due to the increasing needs for food and hygiene items resulting from the government shutdown, Fr. Bailey and the Outreach Committee have requested that the Loose offerings for the last three Sundays in November be designated for "Emergency Grocery Assistance." Outreach will disburse the funds to the areas of greatest need as determined over the next few weeks.

LECTIONARY STUDY

EVERY SUNDAY

The lectionary study meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. in the Pollard Room to discuss the gospel from the day's insert. Discussion is light but informative. Each class is led by a class member who volunteers. Come experience how enriching this Lectionary class can be to your Bible study and understanding.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION UPDATES

This year our Christian Education team is trying a different model for Sunday school teachers. We are looking for adults who love kids to help lead blocks of Sunday Formation for kids and youth for 4 to 6 week blocks. Please contact Fr. Bailey if you are interested in helping.

SABBATH BREW

SUNDAY MORNINGS

Join us in the parish hall between the services at 9:40 a.m. for a relaxed faith exploration over coffee! We'll watch a very brief film from The Work of the People featuring spiritual leaders discussing faith, justice, and community, followed by organic conversation. No formal curriculum—just authentic dialogue and connection. Come as you are, grab a coffee, and see where meaningful conversation takes us.

BLESSING BOX IN ACTION

ITEMS NEEDED THIS WEEK

Thank you to everyone who is supporting the Blessing Box! Please remember the Blessing Box when you shop. This week, we are requesting donations of canned soups (chicken/beef), oatmeal packs, peanut butter and applesauce cups. They can be placed in the little red wagon in the narthex.

CELEBRATE FEAST DAYS WITH MORNING PRAYER

Have you checked out the recent uploads of Morning Prayer on our YouTube channel? Each is an invitation into a contemplative experience with the words of the Morning Prayer liturgy supplemented by music and ethereal images. We will pause for November and resume in Advent. You can access the YouTube channel from our website.

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE AND DINNER

NOVEMBER 27

It is time to gather in celebration of Thanksgiving with our friends at St. Stephen's! For the third year in a row, the Norman and Neill families will be hosting Thanksgiving lunch. The morning will begin with a service of Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m. with lunch following immediately afterward (around 11 a.m.).

This event is certainly open to anyone who wishes to attend from St. Stephen's. But we encourage you to invite both those who are and those who are not members of our church who may not have family locally, who may be grieving this holiday season, or who simply just need a place to come and enjoy a good meal or fellowship.

The main courses (turkey and ham) will be provided by the church. We are asking each individual or family who participates to bring a side dish. In years past, we've invited people to bring whatever dish they wish to bring. However, our experience is that there are popular "staple" dishes that usually run out, so we strongly encourage you to sign up to bring one of these dishes. The exception, of course, is for anyone who wishes to bring food for their particular dietary needs. We will make sure to mark these in the buffet line. Otherwise, we would encourage you to bring one of the dishes listed.

Please sign up on our website to let us know you are coming (and how many are in your party) and what dish(es) you wish to bring. If at all possible, please try to bring an appropriate amount of food for the people in your party to make sure we have enough for everyone. This is especially true because we sometimes have people who don't have the means to bring food for themselves, much less for others.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to reach out to me (Bailey). We hope to see many of you here for Thanksgiving!

Next Sunday is the First Sunday in Advent. Barbara Neill will have an Advent Wreath making station set up between the 8:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. services if you would like to make an Advent Wreath for your family. There will be a minimal charge for the Advent candles.

ALTAR FLOWERS AND AMBRY CANDLES 2026

First – thank you to all of you who have given the flowers throughout this past year. The flowers add so much to the chancel and are then enjoyed throughout the week. One of the arrangements goes in the chapel for the weekly services there. The other is broken down and distributed around the church and out in the community. The new sign-up charts have been posted near the office. The flowers for the upcoming year will be $90 for the two arrangements. The Ambry Candles will be $10. If you cannot get by to sign up, call the office.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR DONATIONS TO THESE IMPORTANT PARTS OF OUR WORSHIP.

COMING IN DECEMBER

Women's Holiday Outing - All women of the parish are invited to join us on Saturday, December 6th for a festive evening of fellowship! We will start with an early dinner at 3:30 PM at Aubrey's in Oak Ridge, followed by a visit to the Christmas Market at Jackson Square.

It promises to be a night full of delicious food, holiday crafts, and joyful company.

Please bring 5-dozen cookies, bagged 6-to-a-bag for swapping, a list of the ingredients, along with an additional dozen or two for sharing with all. We will take trays of holiday cookies to our shut-ins as well. This is a wonderful, and tasty way to celebrate our children and enjoy the company of your fellow parishioners!

ST. STEPHEN'S HOLIDAY BOOK DRIVEDONATE TODAY

The book drive has officially begun! This year, we are collecting gently used children's books to hand out during the Oak Ridge Christmas Parade. Donations can include picture books, chapter books, and books for young toddlers. While books do not need to be holiday-themed, please ensure they are lightly used and appropriate for children.

Books can be placed in the labeled bins in the Parish Hall or Hospitality Area. For any questions, please contact Brittany Shassere at Brittany.Shassere@knoxschools.org.

Help us share the joy of reading and make this parade a special celebration for our community!

OAK RIDGE CHRISTMAS PARADEDECEMBER 13

St. Stephen's is excited to participate in the Oak Ridge Christmas Parade on Saturday, December 13th at 6:00 p.m. along the Oak Ridge Turnpike. This wonderful community tradition is a joyful way to celebrate the season and share our parish spirit.

Our youth will be riding on the church float, helping to spread Christmas cheer throughout the evening. The Evangelism Committee is seeking volunteers who are willing to walk alongside the float and help pass out books to parade-goers. Your presence and helping hands will make a meaningful impact as we connect with our community in a warm and welcoming way.

If you're interested in volunteering, please contact Brittany Shassere at Brittany.Shassere@knoxschools.org. Let's make this year's parade a festive and faith-filled celebration!

Let's share in fellowship and holiday fun as we prepare for this festive community celebration!
